February 2012

Chapter 9100

Issue 150

From the Director...

Hello H.O.G.® Members:

I'm feeling better now that I got through the first meeting. I had several threats about heckling me and was relieved it didn't happen. Although I did have to threaten Jan saying all her purses were going to the dump if she followed through! We had 85 people at the general meeting and it was great to see so many in attendance. We all had quite the surprise driving to the Montrose, but a snow storm didn't keep us away. Thanks to all the new executive for their contributions to a successful start to the year.

Hamilton held a Motorcycle Show on January 27, 28 & 29. This was the first in many years. Some of our member attended and had mixed reviews. I definitely got the message that it wasn't the best show they had been to.

Date booked for Greg Frewin Magic Show is Thursday, March 22nd. In Niagara Falls, dinner @ 6:30 / show @ 8:00. More information will be sent out... They have a buffet dinner and then you watch the show. Greg is a fabulous magician. He worked in Las Vegas for many years with Siegfried & Roy and David Copperfield.

We had the new Friday the 13th Quilt at our breakfast and it has to be the best one yet! We are very excited and confident the tickets will sell easily and quickly. Thanks to all who donated shirts and a special thank you to Susan for the hours spent making this quilt.

On Friday January 20 I joined several of our members at Simo's. Val cooked Fish & Chips and we socialized, had refreshments and ate good food. It was an enjoyable evening with lots of tall tales and laughs.

Happy Trails,
Bear,
Director.

From the Assistant Director Bruce. B.

Greetings Niagara H.O.G.®,

It was nice to see so many members and guests out to our first breakfast meeting for 2012. Can you believe it's almost the end of February already? Where did the winter go?

I bring good news to our membership. According to Fenwick Flossie, our local rodent, spring is just around the corner. By saying this, with the list of exciting rides we have planned for this year, you should be getting your ride ready.

February is known as the sweet and loving month of the year, so I hope you haven't forgot to get your better half a great big piece of chocolate, like we really need it. If that isn't enough, I hope you pigged out at the Fabulous Fenwick Lions Ribfest to satisfy your taste buds.

Just a reminder, you may want to attend the Toronto International Spring Motorcycle Show at the Toronto International Centre March 17 and 18.

Don't forget to register for the Provincial Rally in Windsor, it promises to be a good time and we'd like to have a good turnout from our Chapter.

Happy trails to you, until we meet again - ride safe,

Assistant Director Bruce Bissell

Safety Tips from Ken P.

Collaborative Group Riding Ride Your Own Ride AND Respect The Others

By: James R. Davis

When you ride in a group it is unquestionably your first priority to take care of yourself - to ride within your limits and the limits of your bike, regardless of what the rest of the group does. That's often been described as 'Riding your own ride'.

But you ARE in a group and that means some new responsibilities and behaviors apply. You ride at the speed the group rides, you stay in the lanes chosen by the lead bike, You stop when and where the group stops. Sounds a lot like you are riding THEIR ride as much as your own, doesn't it?

When riding in a group there is certainly some team work going on, but each and every person in that group is expected to 'ride their own ride'. Doesn't that sound just a little bit different to you than each person being expected to do whatever it takes to make the team effort successful?

In collaborative efforts the assumption is that each individual is expert/proficient in some specialty while generally being able to function in team efforts. That is a very subtle difference in attitude. For example, in a collaborative effort, it is not unusual to find debate about what should be done next as each individual contributes based on their expertise. What IS unusual in a collaborative effort is that there is any rancor in these debates [well, there are sometimes rather harsh arguments, but the point is that each member is heard and contributes based on their specialty.] Each member RESPECTS the expertise of the other members and will generally defer gracefully to that expertise. Further, in a collaborative effort the group will do what the boss (lead bike) tells them to do unless there is a good reason not to.

The result is that almost invariably you have the best of the best from the best, though it looks like team work.

Back to motorcycling in a group ... some in the group have more stamina, some have better night vision, some have better navigation skills, some have better familiarity with the surroundings, some have better emergency preparedness or EMS training, some are better diplomats. You get the picture.

Respecting the skills and uniquenesses of each of the rest of the team results in getting the best of the best from the best. Respecting yourself is riding your own ride. Respecting the others is collaborative group riding. The group leader/road Captain in a well functioning collaborative effort has certain responsibilities, each of the rest have theirs, and with respect, together they all decide on the best way to do things for the group.

Rather than the lead bike making all the decisions for the group, in a collaborative effort, he/she will consult with the others and give serious consideration to the expertise therein. Strategic decisions (destination) remain the leader's responsibility while tactical decisions (how) might well come from the members. Dictatorship it's not. Nor is it a drill team. Rather, it is a group of 'professionals' engaged in a cooperative effort designed for the benefit of all. Safe arrival and a good time with maximum contribution and participation by each may look like team work, but is more. Ride smart.

Road Captain news from Dave L.

Another month closer to riding season and the riding events are accumulating!

We will be planning our first poker run soon; it's exciting to think about it. Please note there are 8, yes 8 road captains to see us safely through the season, of which I am merely the advocate. They are George K., Dave B., Jim R., Simo B., Carmen R., Gerald N. (who?), and Sante T.

Some events have been assigned to various road captains; there will be more to come...

Updates from Rosaire. T...

January Bike Shows, Friday the 13th and more
Rose, PR Guy

Who says January is a quiet month? I got out for a ride one time in January and if this day keeps going in the right direction, I'll be going for a Super Bowl Ride. We started the month with a New Year's Eve party at the Club House...thanks Val and Simo... it was a fun night and a great way to kick off 2012. The pot-luck dinner was a success and fun was had by all.

A group of us went to Toronto for the International Bike Show...same old stuff with less costume bikes on display and Simo wanted to buy a chopper. On January 28th, I met some H.O.G.® members at the "NEW" World of Motorcycles bike show in Hamilton. I can't say "same old" because it is a brand new show but the venue was small and the same old vendors were trying to peddle their same old stuff. Bruce borrowed a Harley Davidson sign so the Fabulous Fenwick Lion's Club could put together a nice display to sell tickets on their bike. Niagara HOG had flyers available for the Spring Poker Run. Clare's display was across the aisle and was very impressive. Randy rented a large HD display from Rocky's and brought up a dozen bikes so it was looking good.

Bernie and I decided to cut the show short and go to A & L Cycles on Main St., Hamilton. In my humble opinion, it was better than the show. Al and his wife have been collecting for over 40 years and they have a great display of motorcycle paraphernalia upstairs. They even have a copy of a one issue only Harley-Davidson comic book. I figure that's worth a few bucks.....YUP!!!!

January was a pretty nice month...except for Friday the 13th!!!

Bear, Ken and I went into Dover around noon and surprisingly it was a busy place even with the terrible weather. We saw only a few bikes but the bars were full and happening. To be continued.....

Ride to Carlisle Bike Fest

Road dirt...

Last year we had some fun with weird stuff that was photographed by Niagara H.O.G.® members. For 2012, the challenge has returned as "Road Dirt".

Beginning April 1 and finishing October 31, please photograph and submit any odd and unusual items that you come across on your rides and trips. No pictures of your bikes or person, although that may be counted as oddities to some.

Please forward to ridefreeinc@hotmail.com.

We hope to have the Niagara H.O.G.® members judge the photos at season end.

*North Carolina Trip

Wednesday, June 27th – Tuesday, July 3rd, 2012

Once again a second road trip to Stations Inn, North Carolina is in the planning stages. Last years trip was a huge success, admittedly with a couple of hiccups which, I hope, to avoid this trip.

Stations Inn will be ours for three (3) consecutive nights (Fri. June 29th until Sun. July 1st). Like last year, we will have a cook-out and a band for Saturday night (hopefully the same one). Sunday afternoons, at Stations Inn, is always a good time; there's a band in the afternoon; so go for a ride in the morning and be back for some down home music and that great southern hospitality.

Those dates are best because of the Canadian and U.S. holidays (July 1st and July 4th), getting across the border would have been problem at that time. Leaving June 27th should enable us to cross the border, both going over and coming back, without long delays, and also get back in time for Friday the 13th in Port Dover.

Also; in an attempt to avoid delays, and for safety reasons, we will be riding in smaller groups; (10 bikes, maximum). This will allow you to ride at your own pace, elect your own road captain and organize your own mini or side trips, if you wish, eventually all meeting at Stations Inn. For example; Willie Uhrig is planning a ride to Memphis TN to visit Graceland before heading east, stopping in Nashville then meeting up at Stations Inn for Saturday and Sunday night. Those who wish can contact Willie (wuhrig@coqeco.ca) for exact dates and details.

I, on the other hand, shall have the pleasure of my wife's company, and have been advised to, "Put together a leisurely, relaxed ride, if you know what's good for you!", as she put it. Therefore; we shall take our time and ride to Cleveland OH, via the Lakeshore, probably go to The Rock n' Roll Hall of Fame, visit a couple of Harley dealers and enjoy a beverage or two along the way. Head south the next morning, stay another night near Charleston WV then arrive at Stations Inn for Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Check out will be Monday morning, July 2nd, for the ride home, or where ever it is you're heading, and like last year, stop overnight in Morgantown WV.

There are only 17 rooms, at Stations Inn, (no more than 4 to a room), however; Freeborne's, across the street, is available if we need it.

Contact me with your intensions, as I need to start putting this together.

This is all I have at this time, more to come shortly.

Ladies of Harley™ from Lorna. T.

Hello to all!

What a great first meeting of H.O.G.® ! Apparently there was a large snow cloud over Niagara, but only Niagara. Despite that it was a great turn out.

I would just like to say thank you to everyone for supporting the Ladies of Harley draw and the 50/50. What a great success for the first one.

The information is starting to come in for the fabulous weekend away at Sherkston. Again it promises to be a great weekend away with loads of fun! I've already had some girls inquiring and once I have the information I will share it with all you ladies!

FYI we will once again be lamination membership cards at February meeting.
